of love and service.

As a parish founded by immigrants,
we recognize that we continue to be a multi-ethnic parish.

We welcome everyone
by ministering to their various needs

Please
don't forget your pledge!

While many people understood the need for the Generations of Faith Campaign when we were in the pledge phase, many have not been keeping up with the promised payments. Remember, the parish doesn't receive its share of the money until $474,000 is fully paid!

As of now only a fraction of the pledges are being paid regularly. We know that some months are harder than others financially for you, but a promise is a promise. Please keep trying your best to pay something toward your pledge each month.

Thank you.

Msgr. Ronald T. Marino

From the Pastor's Desk....

We are still joyful! The day of Easter has passed, but the effects of Easter are only just beginning. Did you notice all the people who came to our Holy Week services this year? Did you see how many more Chinese and Spanish speaking immigrants chose to join us as a parish for these celebrations? Did you notice how beautiful the Church looked? Did you hear the joy in the music which was sung by the choir and by us?

Did you see the smiles on the faces of our people when they were leaving Church? These are the signs which the Holy Spirit gives to us to let us know that He is with us as we pray.

Perhaps you didn't notice these things. Perhaps you were so occupied with your own thoughts and worries that you didn't even allow the Holy Spirit to touch your heart or open your eyes. Most people call it "distraction". I call it "obstruction". In one of the Gospels Jesus says: "...behold, I stand at the door and knock". The door could be the one which could let Him into our hearts, but it still has the big stone in front of it which needs to be rolled away. When we roll away the stones of our own sins, our spiritual laziness, our own excuses for not growing in our faith; we will certainly find the power of the Risen Lord inside our hearts waiting to be discovered. This is the Easter power which can change anything and anyone. We have to believe in it and trust Him. When we hold back on this power, we are the ones who lose.

During this Eastertime, it is our prayer for each family to ask the Risen Lord to help them experience His saving power in their lives. "Ask, and you shall receive."

Msgr. Ronald T. Marino

MEMORIAL OPPORTUNITY

We are in need of 6 NEW RED VESTMENTS for Mass. Each set costs $250. If anyone would like to donate a set or two in memory of a loved one, please let one of the priests know or call the rectory (718 236 0909). We appreciate your help in obtaining these vestments.

Msgr. Ronald T. Marino

We want to thank the following parishioners who have made donations for the new vestments:
Carla & George Licata
Joseph J. Marra

Thank you for your generosity.

The Holy Father speaks...

“Let us go back to proclaim, to share, to reveal that it is true: the Lord is alive! He is living and he wants to rise again in all those faces that have buried hope, buried dreams, buried dignity. If we cannot let the Spirit lead us on this road, then we are not Christians. Let us go, then. Let us allow ourselves to be surprised by this new dawn and by the newness that Christ alone can give. May we allow his tenderness and his love to guide our steps. May we allow the beating of his heart to quicken our faintness of heart.”

En Sintonía.Domingo de la Divina Misericordia.

Se concede la indulgencia plenaria, con las condiciones habituales (confesión sacramental, comunión eucarística y oración por las intenciones del Sumo Pontífice) al fiel que, en el domingo segundo de Pascua, llamado de la Misericordia divina, en cualquier iglesia u oratorio, con espíritu totalmente alejado del afecto a todo pecado, incluso venial, participe en actos de piedad realizados en honor de la Misericordia divina, o al menos rece, en presencia del santísimo sacramento de la Eucaristía, públicamente expuesto o conservado en el Sagrario, el Padrenuestro y el Credo, añadiendo una invocación piadosa, por ejemplo, Jesús misericordioso, confío en ti. Creo que nosotros debemos aprender a encontrar a Jesús en la Eucaristía, donde está presente y cercano hasta entregarse como alimento para nuestro camino; en el Sacramento de la Penitencia, donde el Señor manifiesta su misericordia ofreciéndonos siempre su perdón. Reconociendo y sirviendo a Jesús también en los pobres y enfermos, en los hermanos que están en dificultad y necesitan ayuda. Como el apóstol Tomás, cuando profesó abiertamente su fe en Jesús: ¡Señor mío y Dios mío!. Nuestro Señor, vuelto a la vida después del Viernes Santo, se aparece en el Cenáculo a sus discípulos, con los signos evidentes de la crucifixión en sus manos y en sus pies. Jesús resucitado muestra a Tomás su costado abierto por la lanza del soldado, invitándolo a meter su mano en el pecho traspasado. Y, como Tomás, exigimos también nosotros demasiadas pruebas para creer. Pero la fe es, por definición, creer lo que no vemos y dar el libre consentimiento de nuestra mente, de nuestro corazón y de nuestra voluntad, a la palabra de Dios. La fe es un don de Dios que transforma totalmente la existencia y la visión de las cosas.

La congregación de San Miguel Arcángel invita a toda la comunidad Hispánica, todos los niños con sus papas a participar el Sábado 29 de Abril 2017 a las 6:00pm procesion desde Santa Rosalia hacia la Basílica Regina Pacis - Celebración solemne en honor de San Miguel Arcángel.

Divine Mercy is about trusting in Jesus completely in our life and our death. It is about His incredible thirst for all the souls He created to live happy with Him forever in Heaven. It is about knowing that His power, mercy, and love alone save us and it is about Him generously allowing us to help Him through our prayers, sacrifices and by spreading the message of His mercy.

You may color the picture of Jesus showing His Divine Mercy.
