From the Pastor...

I am looking for some parishioners who might be willing to be appointed to the Parish Pastoral Council and the Parish Finance Council.

Both of these exist to help me manage the administration of the parish and to advise me and our priests on the pastoral needs and programs of our parish.

The Finance Council meets 3 times a year and the Pastoral Council meets every other month.

Please consider volunteering to help.

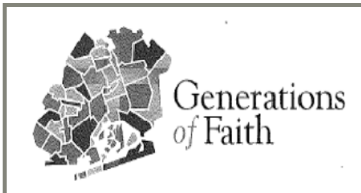

If you are interested, please contact me to submit your name for consideration.

Rev. Msgr. Ronald T. Marino

PLEASE REMEMBER YOUR PLEDGES

While we are very happy that we went over our goal in the Generations of Faith Campaign, we did so in pledges. The parish will not receive any funds for ourselves until the pledge goal is paid.

So far, only 10% of the pledged amount has been paid. We still have a LONG way to go -- about $400,000 in payments to be made--before we begin to benefit directly. Please try your best.

Altar Server Vestments

We have purchased some new serving outfits for our Altar Servers since they are quickly outgrowing the ones we have. These altar server vestments cost about $100 a set. I am asking you, if you can, to make a donation to buy new ones for our kids.

You can do this by using a credit card at the back of church to charge your donation or put it in an envelope marked "altar servers" or bring it to the rectory. Any extra amount you give will help the cause.

Thank you to the generous parishioners who have already made donations.

Msgr. Ronald T. Marino

Thank You

The Holy Father speaks...

Love is a patient effort by persons who dedicate themselves to listening and drawing closer to others.

Let us pray for our brothers and sisters who encounter discrimination and pay a personal price for their fidelity to the Gospel.

Christian unity is a priority, because we realize that much more unites us than separates us.

We are disciples, but also missionaries, bringing Christ wherever he asks us to be present.

Holiness is to live by being loving and offering our Christian witness in our everyday lives.

En Sintonía.Perdonen a sus enemigos y oren por sus perseguidores.

Atodos nos resulta fácil querer a las personas con las que somos afines, con las que empatizamos y nos encontramos a gusto, pero amar a los enemigos ya es otra cuestión. Jesús va más allá, nos pide que amemos también a nuestros enemigos. Esto nos sorprende igual que sorprendió a las gentes de su época, pero Jesús ha descubierto que Dios Padre no es violencia, no es rechazo ni castigo, sino que es un Dios de toda bondad. Todos somos iguales, por todo ello, cuando descubrimos en nuestra vida el amor de Dios no podemos introducir en ella la violencia, ni el desprecio por los demás, tampoco el odio o la desidia.

Si hemos dejado entrar en nuestra vida a Jesús no podemos ser enemigos de nuestros enemigos, sino amigos, tenemos que aprender a amarlos, a empatizar con ellos aunque nos cueste. Por lo tanto, debemos erradicar de nuestra vida el ojo por ojo, diente por diente y dejar paso al amor y al perdón porque es la única forma de ayudar a construir un mundo más humano, si actuamos así demostraremos que otro mundo es posible y estaremos dando credibilidad ante los hermanos de que amar al prójimo es amar a Dios a quien sólo vemos a través del hermano. Jesús nos ofrece entonces unas nuevas energías para vivir el amor auténtico, Él siendo verdaderamente humano lo entiende desde nuestra humanidad, pero siendo verdaderamente divino, nos lleva al centro de la Ley que es el amor.

Personas que deseen bautizar a sus hijos en Español, pueden hacerlo el Segundo Sábados de cada mes.

Are You Considering Cremation?

Many people are under the wrong impression that the Catholic Church prohibits cremation. In fact, it does not. What the Church forbids is anything which diminishes the dignity of the human body or reflects a disbelief in the Resurrection of our bodies which we believe will happen no matter where we are resting. Specifically, the Church prohibits the scattering of cremated remains into the air or the sea, the dividing of the remains among family and friends, keeping the remains at home or doing anything with the human remains of a loved one which lacks religious dignity.

The Church requires that the cremated remains of a person be buried in a cemetery grave or kept in a place designed for this purpose – a Columbarium. At Regina Pacis Basilica we are blessed to have a Columbarium in St. Joseph Chapel in the lower level of our beautiful Basilica.

Our Chapel is no ordinary burial place. It is in a functioning Church where Masses and prayers are celebrated. People resting here are interred in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament and surrounded by beautiful etched glass images of many Saints. St. Joseph Chapel is a brightly lighted place of peace and prayerfulness where it is plainly visible that Catholics believe in the Resurrection.

Families can still have a wake and a funeral Mass, and after the cremation, bring the cremated remains to Regina Pacis to have an Inurnment Ceremony in our Chapel. Here, families can come to pray and visit easily and often. The burial niches come in various sizes: single, companion, or family so that a family can provide for future needs now. The niches are glass covered so that the burial urn containing the cremains is visible, and some have beautiful marble fronts which simply indicate the person's name and dates. For information about St. Joseph Chapel and Columbarium, please feel free to visit Regina Pacis Basilica or call the Parish Office at 718.236.0909 for more detailed information.

"To bury the Deceased" has always been a Catholic work of mercy. We are happy to offer this dignified and beautiful Chapel to all.
