ST. JOSEPH CHAPEL & COLUMBARIUM

BASILICA OF REGINA PACIS

Situated in the Basilica of Regina Pacis, St. Joseph Chapel and Columbarium contains the final resting place for the cremated remains of Catholics and their relatives. The burial niches provide a beautiful and dignified environment in which the deceased are prayerfully honored and eternal life is celebrated.

CHAPEL & COLUMBARIUM FEATURES

The four main parts of the columbarium are beautifully configured glass front and marble niches which house urns containing the cremated remains of loved ones. Each chapel of niches is dedicated to the Blessed Mother and honors our Risen Lord and His Saints.

The Chapel of St. Joseph is surrounded by beautiful etched glass representations of Saints whom the Catholic Church has honored for their holiness. In front of the Statue of St. Joseph, patron Saint of a peaceful death, is a fountain of peacefully flowing water, symbolizes the Sacrament of Baptism through which believers receive the gift of eternal life.

The Columbarium area contains two prayer chapels for honoring and remembering those who have died, and whose remains are buried elsewhere. Lighted glass plaques, Cenotaphs, list the names of individuals and families who have been or will be buried in other cemeteries, so that a remembrance of the whole family can be located in one place.

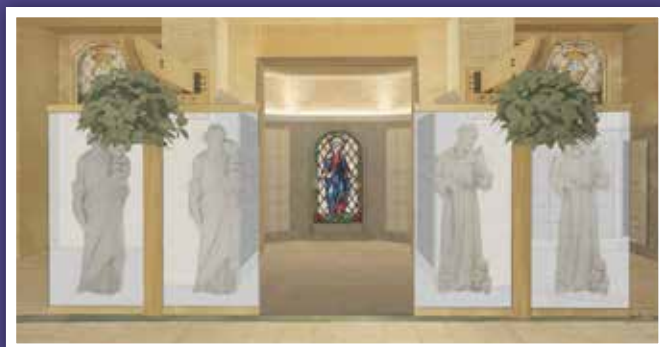

Our niches are reasonably priced according to the type of frontal piece which will be used (glass or marble), the size of the niche to be purchased (single, companion or family) and its location in the columbarium chapel itself.
