PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic faith community who believes in God
– Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – and who follows Christ's teaching of love and service.

As a parish founded by immigrants,
we recognize that we continue to be a multi-ethnic parish.

We welcome everyone
by ministering to their various needs and provide all with the opportunity to grow intellectually in Christ.
Through our sacramental life,
we are empowered to build up
the Body of Christ
and to become a more vibrant and faith-filled community.

PLEASE REMEMBER OUR PARISH IN YOUR WILL

Each of us finds different ways to make our mark on the world. One way of doing this is by making a bequest.

When you leave a bequest to your Church, you give a gift that lasts longer than your lifetime, a gift the will always be remembered. After providing for your family, a bequest to Regina Pacis Parish is a special way of ensuring that the work of the Church continues. Some people leave money, others leave property, jewelry, etc. Some bequests are large and some are small, but all are vital to the work of the Church. Simply inform your lawyer of your wishes to be included in your will.

From the Pastor's Desk....

As time goes by, some people have been asking about St. Rosalia Church on 14th Avenue. Here's what I know so far:

- The Bishop and the Diocese have reduced it from a sacred space to ordinary space. (In case of vandalism, etc. at least it won't be a Church which was vandalized).
- The Blessed Sacrament has been removed, so that no danger can come to it.
- It is still fully insured and protected.

We have begun to look at what we will do with its contents

My first principle will be to take whatever I can to be used in Regina. For example, I am looking to replace the main altar in Regina with the Altar from St. Rosalia.

This will cement the connection between the two worship sites of our parish. Then, I will let other parishes in need of things for their churches and chapels, take whatever they need as long as it is used for prayer and devotion.

Secondly, we will sell to religious goods vendors things that they might want to purchase. Lastly, whatever remains will be put into the Diocesan storehouse where pastors can go to take things when they need them. All parishes use the storehouse.

Individual parishioners will not be allowed to take things for their homes, even if their family donated them decades ago. A donation is a gift which is permanent. No one gives a gift in the hope of getting it back again! Whatever is there belongs only and totally to the parish.

The Diocese is looking into the sale of that property. There is a Diocesan Real Estate office which handles these deals. Whatever money is eventually received from the sale of property goes to and belongs to the parish. Of course, the Diocese charges a fee to handle this. Under the direct supervision of the Bishop, there are regulations regarding who can buy former church properties and for what purposes. People submit competitive bids to the Diocese. It can never be used for worship by any other religion. In fact, the most common use of former church properties is to build schools.

I understand that this is a sensitive topic and that people still have a great affection for St. Rosalia. Please trust that the utmost care and respect will dominate every decision which will be made. I will keep everyone up to date on developments as they happen.

Msgr. Ronald T. Marino

What is a priest?

A priest is a Christian, a member of the Church, called by God to proclaim the "Good News" of Salvation to the world and to lead God's people in worship, especially in making present the saving sacrifice of Jesus on the Cross in the Eucharist. He is also privileged to bring Christ to people in the Sacraments: he gives the life of Christ to people in Baptism; he forgives their sins in Reconciliation; he anoints the sick; he officiates at weddings. In general, the priest brings Jesus Christ to people in their spiritual needs.

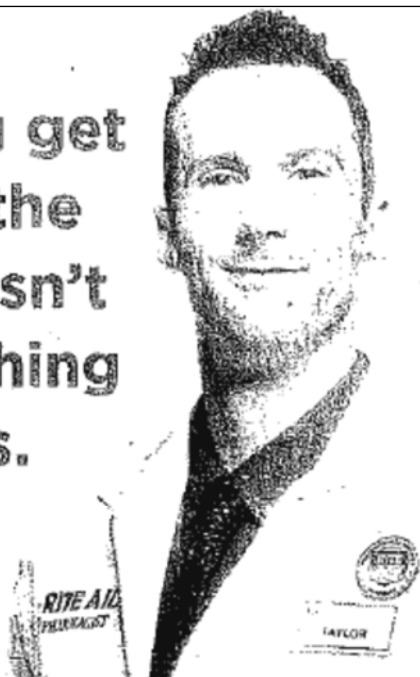

The Holy Father speaks...

Whenever we look to Mary, we come to believe once again in the revolutionary nature of love and tenderness. In her we see that humility and tenderness are not virtues of the weak but of the strong, who need not treat others poorly in order to feel important themselves. Hand in hand with the Virgin Mother, and under her watchful gaze, may we come to sing with joy the mercies of the Lord, and cry out: "My soul sings to you Lord!"

When you get sick with the flu, work isn't the only thing you'll miss.

Don't miss our flu shot clinic.

Dear Parents,

Thank you for your enthusiastic support of the Children's Hand Bell Choir as it was introduced to our parish last year. The children worked hard, enjoyed themselves and played beautifully. The Christmas Eve Family Mass was a wonderful experience for all as well as the times the Hand Bell Choir was featured at our 10:30 weekly family Mass. This year we can certainly add more "ringing" to more liturgies! I am hoping that many new children will join in with the "veterans" from last year to make the Hand Bell Choir bigger and better.

Practice is on Thursdays at 4:30-5:30 in the Conference Center.

Your child MUST participate in the choir in order to also play in the Children's Hand Bell Choir. I can be contacted at ja.jonathan@gmail.com or at 917-498-2115 for questions regarding this wonderful opportunity for your children!

Mr. Jonathan Fields, Music Director

Remember if you sign up for Regina's Hand Bell Choir you will be providing FREE music lessons!
