of love and service.

As a parish founded by immigrants, we recognize that we continue to be a multi-ethnic parish.

We welcome everyone

Thank You

A very special thanks is in order to those who helped make our "paint-night" fundraiser such an enjoyable evening for all.

Theresa Landy was the principal organizer of the event and put in countless hours of preparation, shopping, set-up and general aggravation. She was ably assisted by her son Neil and his girl-friend Brienne.

The "artist in charge" was Jocine Geraci, the daughter of Carla Licata our parish bookkeeper. She was a very helpful and patient teacher who guided our new artists with gentleness and a smile.

The works of art which now hang in about 40 houses in our parish turned out to be very lovely.

We thank all those who made donations of prizes for the raffles and gift baskets.

As they say: " A good time was had by all."

Is the daily life of a priest interesting?

There is never a dull moment for those in the priesthood. It is a great challenge but is also extremely rewarding. When each day comes to a close, a priest can say "Lord today I spent myself for you!" What a wonderful thought with which to end one's day.

The Holy Father speaks...

Jesus is present in so many of our brothers and sisters who suffer today like He did. Jesus is always there with an open heart. He throws open the mercy that He has in His heart. He forgives, embraces, and understands. Lord, teach us to contemplate you in the beauty of creation and reawaken our gratitude and sense of responsibility.

Volunteers needed

We are looking for a group of men and women to become our Annual Christmas Decoration Committee.

This committee will take care of our mailings and paperwork regarding the trees and wreaths. Some may also become involved when the trees and wreaths and other decorations need to be arranged.

If you have any spare time --even two hours a week-- please let the Rectory know (718 236 0909).

We need your help!!!

ENGLISH BIBLE STUDY AND REFLECTION EVERY THURSDAY MORNING AT 10:00 IN THE BASILICA CONFERENCE CENTER ALL ARE WELCOME.

LETTURA E MEDITAZIONE DELLA BIBBIA

Ogni sabato alle 18:30 nella Rectory della Basilica Regina Pacis.

"Gesù allora si voltò e, vedendo che lo seguivano, disse: «Che cercate?». Gli risposero: «Rabbi (che significa maestro), dove abiti?». Disse loro: «Venite e vedrete». Andarono dunque e videro dove abitava e quel giorno si fermarono presso di lui" (Gv 1,38-39).

Ti invitiamo a leggere e a riflettere insieme con noi sulla Parola di Dio per capire come il Signore parla a noi oggi attraverso la Sacra Scrittura. Dai un po' del tuo tempo al Signore per imparare a conoscerlo meglio attraverso l'ascolto della sua Parola.

From the Pastor's Desk....

Lately, I have been noticing a practice occurring when a person dies. The family, oftentimes not churchgoers themselves, decide NOT to give the deceased person a Catholic Funeral. They prefer to skip Mass altogether and just have the wake and the burial. They often say: " ....she was not very religious anyway" or "...it's cheaper for us if we skip the MASS" or "she's dead, she won't know...." I find this to be horrible!!

EVERY CATHOLIC HAS THE RIGHT TO CATHOLIC FUNERAL PRACTICES. It is not up to the family members to decide to take away this right.

The Catholic Funeral consists of a brief wake + prayers, the Mass of the Resurrection, and Christian burial or cremation with the burial of the ashes or inurnment of the ashes in a Columbarium like the one we have in the lower Basilica. There are no other Catholic funeral rituals.

THE WAKE

The wake gives the family a chance to come together and mourn. It also gives relatives, friends and neighbors a chance to visit and comfort the family. The wake is about the deceased person. This is the proper place for flowers, gifts, and for eulogies which remember the life of the person.

Families do not have to buy the most expensive coffin or fill the room with flowers in order to show their love for the deceased person. The simpler the better.

THE MASS OF THE RESURRECTION

The Funeral Mass is an opportunity for the family to pray together for the deceased and for themselves. It is really NOT about the deceased person, but about Christ. The Mass is not a judgment on the person who died, but a chance for the family to renew their own beliefs in the gift of eternal life which Christ gave to all of us at our Baptism. The deceased's body is brought to Church with dignity because it is the place where God allowed life to live and through which He showed His love to others. Even the biggest sinners have the right to Mass because it is for the family, not about the deceased. This is why eulogies are not appropriate at Mass since we focus on the "next life". The eulogy fits best at the wake when we focus on the time on earth of the deceased. The Mass can even be said for a non-Catholic person, if that person's family are Catholic.

Church law requires that if Mass is not going to take place, then written permission must be given for burial in a Catholic cemetery.

THE BURIAL

The body of a deceased person is treated with dignity and respect since it was made by God and became His dwelling place. Catholics are encouraged to bury their loved ones in consecrated ground. If this is not possible, the grave itself should be blessed. Catholics are permitted to cremate the body ON THE CONDITION that this is not done because of a lack of belief in the Resurrection, and that the ashes will be buried in consecrated ground or in a Columbarium after the cremation. It is not permitted to scatter them to the wind or to keep them at home on a shelf or to bury them in a back yard. People can have the cremation and then bring the ashes to Church for a Funeral Mass, if they wish to do it in that order.

A Funeral never judges the person. We rely completely on God's loving mercy for that. However, we who remain do what we know best--pray for the deceased and his family--at their difficult time. We also offer other Masses for the deceased long after the funeral has taken place.

My point in writing about this is to say that AFTER you die, you will have no say in what is done. You should make it clear NOW to your family that you wish to have the complete Catholic Ritual when you die, that is, Wake, Mass and Christian burial. Money is not an issue. We often lower or completely waive the fees for families in financial difficulty. This is YOUR RIGHT. Insist on it !!!

Rev. Msgr. Ronald T. Marino, Pastor

On November 1, the Catholic Church celebrates All Saints Day.

What is a saint?

A saint is a person who lived their life according to the teachings of Christ. Although people view saints with great awe, saints are ordinary men and women who, through their faith, overcome common weaknesses, failures and imperfections. Those who are granted sainthood become role models for the rest of us, showing us that even we can be strong and never give up trying to do and to be better.

Through the process of "Canonization," the Catholic Church recognizes these special people and proclaims them 'Saints' so that all Christians will recognize them as 'Saints'.

Some of the early saints, like St. Peter and St. Paul were acclaimed. The assumption is that those who followed Christ had been transformed so that they were different from other men and women and considered to be holy people.

In the Roman Catholic Church, All Saints Day is a Holy Day of Obligation meaning going to Mass on the date is required unless one has a good reason to be excused from that obligation, such as illness. However, since All Saints Day falls on a Sunday this year, it is already a day that we attend Mass.

In our beautiful Basilica of Regina Pacis, over 60 saints are displayed. Some in paintings and some with a statue. Visit the Basilica and find the many saints displayed.
