The Holy Father speaks...

The Lord is the first to trust in you, and He also invites you to trust in yourselves; He invites you to encourage one another, and join Him in writing the most beautiful page of your lives.

Our life and our talents are the result of a gift woven between God and the many silent hands of persons whose names we will only know in Heaven.

The pursuit of lasting peace is a mission that involves everyone. It calls for strenuous, constant and unceasing effort, because peace is like a delicate flower trying to blossom on the stony ground of violence.

Try to keep quiet a moment and let God love you. Try to silence all the inner voices, and rest for a second in His loving embrace.

Are You New to the Parish? WELCOME! Please stop into the rectory office and register!

From the Pastor's Desk...

I hope everyone enjoyed the summer break from our work and school duties. Now we are back and must get down to our normal routine of prayer, Holy Mass, reflection of our relationship with the Lord and His Mother, and setting an example for our children and others of being a committed Catholic.

Since we may have broken our routines over the summer, it will take a little more effort to get back into the normal swing of things. Those who have children must work harder to get them back on board and must really try to offer them help to grow closer to God and His Church. It is my prayer that we can all take this challenge seriously. Remember that we priests are here to help you.

On another matter, I am happy to inform you that Bishop DiMarzio will be sending Auxiliary Bishop James Massa to our parish on Saturday, September 21 to conduct an official parish visit. At 4:00 PM on that day, he will meet with the priests, the parish council members, and others to discuss parish and diocesan priorities. Then at 5:00 PM, Bishop Massa will celebrate the Saturday evening Mass and greet the attendees after Mass, as usual.

On Sunday, September 29th, Bishop Raymond Chappetto, the Vicar General of the Diocese, will come to celebrate the Feast Of St. Fortunata with the members of the St. Fortunata Society at 4:30 PM in the Basilica.

St. Fortunata is a patroness of Baucina, Sicily. All are invited to join them.

Let's all ask God's blessing on our parish as we begin a new Pastoral year.

-Msgr. Marino
